COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN FOR MISS SHELTON STATE PAGEANT NAMED

Shelton faculty member Judy Barker will be chairman of the Miss Shelton State Pageant again this year. The pageant, which will be held February 13 in the junior college auditorium, will offer gifts, prizes, and scholarships to the winner in addition to the chance to represent the college in the Miss Alabama Pageant in Birmingham this summer.

Other chairmen for the event include: Sandra Day, Entries; Tom Umphrey, Judges; Brenda Black, advertising/Scholarships; Loretta Kyle, Hostess committee; Bessie German, Program; Paul Looney, Production; Martha Ann Hill, Tickets; Arthur Howington, Judges Luncheon coordinator; Lucy Kubiszyn, Publicity.

THE FANTASTICKS PROVED FANTASTIC

Everyone enjoyed "The Fantasticks" this past week-end. As always Paul Looney deserves a special round of applause for an outstanding production. The Afro-American Cultural Association deserves another bouquet for ushering and providing concessions.

Shelton State students in the production included Dale Clements as the mute; Jenny Ambrose as Luisa; Dan Stallings as Matt; Dewin Tibbs as Hucklebee; Tommy Vaughn as Cellomy; Don Hartley as Henry the old actor. Mark Smith and Ed Journey from the University of Alabama were also in the show.

ATTENTION! RTI STUDENTS

Students planning to attend RTI for summer quarter must have their application at RTI by February 1, 1982. Applications may be picked up in the counseling area.

SIGN PAINTERS NEEDED AT SHELTON

Volunteers are needed!!!! Contact Dean Lee if you can paint signs on February 20 or 27. The signs are being done for Junior league and will be used during Heritage Week.

STUDENT LIFE WEEK SCHEDULED FOR FEBRUARY 8 - 12

Student Life Week has been scheduled Feb. 8-12 this year. The highlight of the week will be the crowning of the Shelton Sweetheart at a Valentine reception on February 12. The Shelton Sweetheart will be selected from the staff and faculty at Shelton State Junior College by student vote. The Shelton Sweetheart will also be treated to a "dinner for two" at the Landing. WATCH THE MONDAY REPORT FOR MORE DETAILS ON THE CONTEST!

Do you know who the mystery Student Life member is? Ask any student life member about "Student Life" and you may win a "dinner for two" at the Landing.

Sounds like much fun is in store during Student Life Week. More information will be coming in the next weeks on the reception and contests.....

NEWS AROUND SHELTON STATE

Anyone for a winter day treat? Go by the Shelton State library and view the paintings of Jessie DuBose Rhoads currently on exhibit through Feb. 11. Rhoads is one of the best folk painters I've seen..... Shelton State is now the proud owner of several silver trays, compotes and a crystal punch bowl available for official parties and receptions. These items do have to be checked out individually through Dean Umphrey's office All Texans and would-be Texans enjoyed themselves at a small Texas hoe-down at Sharon and Alan Deck's house during the big snow. It was a fund party and Brenda Ryan certainly does a mean bunny-hop.. Anyone for nachos?????????And speaking of the snow, I hope everyone has thawed out by now and is ready for spring..... Tickets are now on sale for the Miss Shelton State Pageant to be held February 13. Advance tickets are $2 and at the door $3. Patron tickets are $5 each.....College Day sponsored by the Educational Talent Search group was a huge success. There were 20 colleges and groups busy recruiting the 400 high school students on campus last Wednesday..... Steve King has some Co-Op openings for qualified secretarial students. If you are proficient in English and typing and interested in the Co-Op program, see Steve
